

This makes you look like a brilliant performer who has just the right thing to say at the right time. And the beauty of this is.....you don't need many – I might throw in about 10 on an event. These little nuggets of humour are what make your audience relax, & go home thinking you are an absolutely amazing performer. Let's get down to this...

HOW TICKLE THEIR FUNNY BONE:

1. Where can you get these one-liners?

2. When can you insert these one-liners in your event?

3. Do you need to be a comedian to be able to deliver one-liners? Why?

4. What is the difference between a comedian and an emcee doing one-liners?

5. What do you need to be careful of when doing jokes?

6. If a joke did not work what should you do?

7. What kind of jokes should you avoid doing?

ACTION STEPS:

1. Write down any good one-liners you already have in your repertoire & memorize them.
2. Research, research, research more humorous material
3. Refresh all your best lines before any performance
4. If necessary, write cues on your program so you remember these lines
5. Put humor into your events immediately
6. If lines don't work – don't give up – practice till you get better at delivering them
